Citadel is the final instalment in the Languedoc trilogy. I haven't read Labyrinth and Sepulchre, and after struggling through Citadel I have no intention of doing so. Set during the Second World, the storyline follows a group of women Resistance fighters who are trying to help people escape the Nazis in France.

What I enjoyed most is Kate Mosse's particular quality of storytelling. It is very detailed and in a way sensual that one can almost feel the atmosphere of the warmth of the Midi. And just like in the first two parts as well as in the book "Winter Ghosts" Kate Mosse's novel conveys a feeling of mystery and transcendence.
